PANIC FIGHT

Alleged Blackmailer is Fatally Wounded
by Police.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The occupants of a crowded trolley car and hundreds of women and children in the street were thrown into a panic in Second avenue today, when a trio of detectives, in a running fight, shot down and probably fatally injured one of a band of three blackmailers.

The man, Paulo Pastellano, jumped through one of the windows of the car in his effort to get away, and when the police began to fire at him the dwellers in the neighborhood knocked down and trampled each other in their attempts to reach places of safety.

The dying man is said by the police to be the head of one of the most desperate gangs of kidnapers that ever operated in New York. There is slight chance for his recovery, the physicians at Bellevue Hospital say, but if ever he does they will try to connect him with a score of crimes of abduction which have thwarted the entire detective force for many months.

The three men had systematically blackmailed Ciro Arboneo, a wealthy barber, and he finally appealed to the police.

So great was the excitement and fright in the street the reserves had to be called out before order was restored.

The other two alleged blackmailers who were arrested gave their names as Ernesto Culleri, and Vincenzo Lorrasi, alias Carbone. According to the police, they took more than $2,000 from the frightened barber before he reported the matter to them.

District Attorney Baker returned to the city today from his vacation in Michigan, much improved in health and with a ruddy complexion, which he says was gathered there. He is satisfied with the conduct of the campaign instituted by Assistant District Attorney Given, against the bucket shop brokers and declares today that all shops are closed with the exception of one, which he says, are not in any new business, but simply closed out of old deals.

A conference will be held this afternoon between District Attorney Baker, Given, and Perry, during which the bucket shop situation will be thoroughly discussed and a plan of action laid out as to when the trial of the alleged bucketshop men will occur. It will be also determined whether brokers will have to quit business entirely.

District Attorney Baker said in concluding his remarks that if any violation of the law was discovered, arrests would immediately be made.

SHOOT'S MAN DEAD DEFENDING HOME

COLUMBUS, Ga., Sept. 3.—Livia T. Edwards, a furniture dealer, was shot to death last night at Wildwood Park by Wood C. Campbell, former marshal of Phoenix City, Campbell was put under arrest and rated Edwards was trying to invade his home.

The resort was crowded with people and a panic ensued as the three shots came from Campbell's pistol, two of the bullets striking Edwards, killing him instantly. The other shot struck John T. Williams, who happened to be near Edwards. It is thought that his wound will prove fatal. It is reported that another spectator was wounded slightly, but this could not be confirmed.

Campbell claims Edwards continued to make advances to Mrs. Campbell, notwithstanding that he pleaded with him to cease his attentions. Campbell was tried for murder a few years ago in Lee county, Ala., and acquitted.

When told in jail that Edwards was dead, Campbell exclaimed: "It was the sweetest death ever killed."

Edwards was about twenty-five years of age and had a family. He had been a Sunday school superintendent and a deacon in the West Side Church.

SHRILL AT HOME OF ERNEST CRABBS

ERNEST L. CRABBS,
Boy Who Was Killed by Discharge of His Own Gun.

Boy Accidentally Killed by Gun May Be Buried Wednesday.

No definite arrangements have been made for the funeral of Ernest L. Crabbs, the fourteen-year-old boy who was instantly killed yesterday by the accidental discharge of a shotgun on the farm of George Rhinefelt, about two miles from Marshall Hall, Md. The services will probably be held Wednesday afternoon or Thursday morning at the family residence, 233 Fourteenth street southeast.

Accompanied by his father, Harry Crabbs, the boy went to Marshall Hall Saturday night to spend Sunday and Labor Day, and do some gunning. After a short stay in the woods, Mr. Crabbs and his son returned to the house. Ernest leaned his gun up against a chair near the porch, and as he was about to go up the steps the weapon tumbled over and exploded.

The shot struck the boy in the abdomen with full force, killing him instantly. The county coroner viewed the remains, and a certificate of accidental death. Mrs. Crabbs was notified by telephone, and went down on the 6 o'clock boat last evening. The remains were brought to Washington on a late boat.

Resides his mother and father, Ernest is survived by his brother, John, and two sisters, Annie and Myrtle.

BISHOP:

"To hide true worth from public view
Is burying diamonds in their mine;
All is not gold that shines,
'tis true;
But all that is gold ought to shine!"

The poet merely states strikingly the truth: Any GOOD store, or bargain, or thing, or offer, or quest should be advertised! "To hide true worth from public view" is—not good business policy.
